

THE HOME AWAY FROM HOME INN

EVP. Electronic Voice Phenomenon.

"Messages from Beyond" Ghosts in electronics.

That time we spoke 2 ghosts in the 4th grade.

James denies it (of course)

Where were we? Gettysburg. Idea for minisode?

Interview Becca too. She heard it.

Emma and Ray picking up strange signals too - told them to record

James didn't hear it when we talked.

Suggested radio interference. What if you're in a place with no signal at all? He said he must've wandered through one a couple times, couldn't get to me. Had the walkie with me the entire time.

- investigator bias "not with you on the case"

- Phantom words/pareidolia

like a face in your morning breakfast? (auditory)

- does it matter if it's based solely on our perception? What if that's the only way to get through to us?

- People see puppy dogs in clouds. Faces in the leaves on trees.

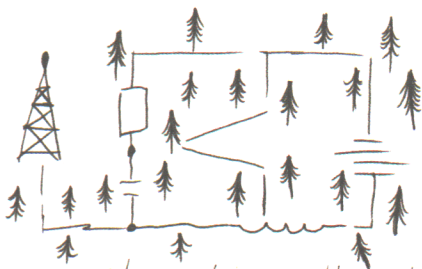

- cool though look into Deutsch

Burkittsville radio tower/station - same one crew saw? Has to be, only one. Should be usable. People in town should be able to tell me more.

clipping on recorder?

THE HOME AWAY FROM HOME INN

"Service road by foot or pass through the Lindsays' yard"—Pete Anderson. Same as the access road? He doesn't know who works there anymore or why someone would want to.

—"heebie jeebies." Tell me about it.

Plenty of people to ask on Griggs Street.
Old guy on porch:

Robert Gillard ("Ol' Rob") walked into the woods
—used to run the station

Did he run away or??? No one knows.
Still missing. "Couldn't take the pressure" of running the tower anymore.

Waylon Bradley runs the tower now, takes "extra precautions" when closing @ night to
"be safe"

—What does this mean? Didn't answer.
I think I know.

Used to work for Rob with a "young lady"?

—Talk to the Scotts, sister went missing too
—Live just out of town, no time 2 visit

THE HOME AWAY FROM HOME INN

James out of snacks. Food in the van, extra in bag, in case I find him first.

Bored kids on main street. Nothing to do. Tower's a famous prank spot. Kids challenge each other to climb up alone. And to stay below alone. Checks w/ Emma's research!

"This better not be a prank, Ed." — cool, good talk, Ray. Don't act like you're not enjoying alone time in the woods w/ Emma.

Kids ding dong ditch Waylon, "he's mean anyway"

*3 years ago a kid got so freaked out by the ~~old~~ man's place, he ran home crying and screaming.

No one saw what scared him, ghost of Robert? Maria?

Lindsays— The old man (Waylon?) always comes through their yard carrying some big toolbox or something, they "hear his clanging coming from the trees" every night

—Every night??
