Janelle,

Can you please pass this one Along to Nonah? She's living with her mom now, right? Maybe you could drop it off?

Dear Nonah Turner,

Your application for adoption has been received! To track the status of your application, visit our website where an account has already been created for you. You can log in with the following information:

Username: NTurner6276

Temporary Password: Q7235T11

After logging in, you will be prompted to create a custom password. We suggest using something you will easily remember, like your favorite pet's nickname. You will then be redirected to our application tracker with the latest information on your adoption. Do not lose your username, as you will need it to access updates throughout the adoption process.

An email containing the contents of this letter has been simultaneously sent to your email address on file.

Thank you for your support,

Your friends at the NOACWS
