

Charter of the Krewe of Versailles

Adopted 17 June, 1884.

Resolved by the Assembly:

SECTION 1. That those in attendance at this inaugural assembly, and those that they may choose to include in their future assemblies, are constituted a body corporate and politic by the name of the Krewe of Versailles.

SEC. 2. The purposes for which said corporation is formed, always consistent with Christian values and doctrine, are the following: (a) to form lasting bonds between the preeminent men and families of Orleans and Jefferson Parishes; (b) through common worship, charitable works, assemblies, and rites of initiation, to form its members in faith and virtue; (c) to render pecuniary aid to its members, their families, and beneficiaries of members and their families; and (d) to promote and maintain the celebration of Carnival to the benefit and satisfaction of both its members and the greater public, culminating in a yearly ball and procession.

SEC. 3. Said corporation shall have perpetual succession. It shall have a common seal. It may sue and be sued. It may hold, receive, lease, and purchase such real estate and personal property as may be requisite and expedient for its purposes, and may sell, lease, encumber, and dispose of such property.

SEC. 4. The membership of this corporation shall remain anonymous to those outside of said corporation.

SEC. 5. All members, unless decided upon by a majority vote, must: (a) contribute a minimum financial stake on a yearly basis; (b) regularly attend assemblies and functions of the Krewe; and (c) uphold the standards of behavior of the Krewe.

SEC. 6. The addition of new members will be decided in a once annual gathering of all current members. To be considered, candidates must first be nominated by an existing member before being put to a vote, where a two-thirds majority will decide inclusion or disclusion. Nominees for membership will only be considered if they meet and maintain the following standards of: (a) being a man of at least thirty-five years of age; (b) being of the Caucasian race and ancestry; (c) owning land within five miles of Orleans or Jefferson Parishes; and (d) maintaining a position of high regard and respect amongst those of his station.
