

To My Beloved Doggone Krewe,

It is with infinite sadness and regret that I must announce my immediate resignation as Captain of That Doggone Krewe of Sir Barksalot and President of the A Hound in Need Is a Friend Indeed rescue, as well as my withdrawal from public life for the foreseeable future. This is a formal change, in effect as of today, January 8. Likewise, my companion Trésor must announce his abdication of the Dog Court Crown and Throne.

I have taken great pains to hide this truth from my loyal pack, but recently Trésor has fallen ill. While I have taken every measure to improve his health and ease his suffering, it has taken a great toll on the both of us, both physically and mentally. While our situations may improve, the outlook is currently bleak. We have decided to retire and rest for the time being in the hopes that a medical miracle may arrive.

However, I fear the decision to step down from my full-time role with AHIN will undoubtedly result in financial strain during an already trying time. Any donations will be very welcome, and Janelle Perry will be coordinating delivery.

Leading this pack has been one of the high points of my life. Over these twenty years with you, I have saved over four thousand lives, something I know I will be remembered for long after I'm gone.

For now, I have appointed Janelle as interim Captain, as well as President of A Hound in Need. She will be assisted by one of our most dedicated volunteers, Earl Huggins. Meanwhile, my mission, to provide a safe home and capable guardian for every dog in Louisiana, will continue, no matter what evil forces stand to oppose me. Knowing that I can count on you all to make that true fills my heart with boundless joy.

With love & regret,

Ronah Turner
