ABOUT NOLA KIDSART

Founded in 2011, our coalition of artists, writers, dramatists, puppeteers, and musicians volunteer their time to provide arts mentorship, inspiration, and a safe space for at-risk young creatives across the Metro New Orleans area.

The members of our Board include such luminaries as Rueben X. Ruebens, Jamaica Rae Ishikawa, Celestine Broussard, and Raheem Luanda.

AUCTION ITEMS

16A01: Framed Rex Parade Newspaper Article

Printed in L'Abeille de la Nouvelle-Orléans, 1882.

This article provides a record of the legendary 1882 Krewe of Rex Parade.

Donated by the Yolanda Bloom-Thomas Estate.

16A02: Collection of Carnival Doubloons

Various metals and plastic (c. 1943–1982).

A completist's dream: a collection of every doubloon from every major rolling krewe for four decades, all preserved in vacuum-sealed lucite containers.

Donated by the Edwin Pushkin Trust.

16A03: Antique Absinthe Spoon

Sterling silver, Parisian design (c. 1890).

Brought over from France by relatives of the Lautrice-Hopkins family in the early 1900s, it was purchased by a private collector in 1986.

Donated by Anonymous.

16A04: Carnival King & Queen Masks

Papier-mâché (1909).

Legendary masks used in the Krewe of Crocus's first Mardi Gras parade.

Donated by the Krewe of Crocus.

16A05: Disco Carnival Queen Dress

Beads and sequins (c. 1978).

This dress was featured in the inaugural parade of New Orleans' only all-roller-skating krewe.

Donated by Kiki Atchinson.

16A06: Self-Portrait as Baron Samedi by Celestine Broussard

Oil on canvas, 3' x 5'.

Donated by the artist.

16A07: Scrapbook of Parade Float Descriptions with Watercolor Renderings

Paintings by Charles Sutter. Leather-bound volume (c. 1896).

This fully-illustrated notebook was created by the legendary Sutter, one of Nouvelle-Orléans' most celebrated artists in the 1890s.

Donated by the Krewe of Avalon.

16A08: Queen's Orb and Scepter (1965)

Sterling silver and pearl, hand-blown glass.

Carried by the radiant Blanche Curtis (mother of our very own Nonah Turner) as Queen of the Krewe of Phthonus during the 1965 Carnival celebration in Houma, Terrebonne Parish.

Donated by Nonah Turner.

16A09: Bottle of "La Spirale Violette" Artisanal Absinthe (unopened, c. 1903)

Glass. Interior contents: unknown.

Rumored to be one of the last remaining authentic bottles of the madness-inducing violet absinthe brewed by "bayou sorceress" Mère Petitpas.

Donated by Dave Turner.

16A10: Early French Accordion

Unknown manufacturer, rosewood with decorative accents, Parisian design (c. 1900).

This famous "wheeze box" was built in Paris and features the original wooden frame. According to legend, it once belonged to the King of Clowns, a semi-mythical traveling entertainer from the Great Depression.

Donated by Monsieur Zeppo La-La-La.

16A11: Krewe of Poseidon Carnival Ball Invitation (1896)

Rectangular engraved card decorated with bearded bust of a king in a seashell.

Donated by Dorothy Billingswell.

16A12: Krewe of Crocus Ball Invitation (1959) "The World's Worship"

Silver-toned card celebrating the 50th anniversary.

Donated by the Carnival History Preservation Association (CHPA).
