"As far as I know, the ASA has no scholarships or sliding-scale programs for students going through financial hardship. If membership is required to participate in sanctioned competitions, that closes a lot of doors for kids that show promise in this sport. FUTURES KATE! can only help so much, so I think it would do a lot of good for the ASA and the sport as a whole to begin a similar program for current students."

"I know that I'm not a numbers guy, but it might be worth looking at Three Pines' budget. Frankly, with the state of the facilities and equipment, I have no idea where all of our money is supposedly going."

Details:

"Nathan LaPalma from the ice rink in Three Pines, CO, is purposefully ignoring rink health and safety guidelines. I have confronted him repeatedly about bringing that thing into the rink, yet he has brought it in every day since he got it. Perhaps he intends to incite an allergic reaction for one of the visiting contestants this year, but it would be in the best interest of the ASA and the rink to enforce regulations before any sponsor hears of it."

Involved Parties: Kingston Lee

Status: Closed

Details:

"Kingston Lee is an independent journalist that frequents Three Pines Ice Rink. He often pressures my students and the rink staff to talk and watches practices. I talked to the local administrators about banning Mr. Lee from the premises in order to ensure student safety, but nothing could be done since he hasn't broken any rules yet. However, I feel there's no need to wait for an infraction when it's obvious his presence is already a distraction during practice. I have issued several warnings, but he has continued showing up. Please advise."

Details:

"In my last complaint, I noted how Kingston Lee was causing an issue for students at Three Pines Ice Rink. Well, this morning, I found Mr. Lee's camera packed between the seats, recording my students during our private ice time. This is a gross violation of my students' privacy, and with the tournament only 9 days away, I will not have them feeling unsafe. I'm not sure who to hand the footage off to, so until I hear from an ASA representative, I'll be keeping it somewhere safe away from the rink. This behaviour needs to be nipped in the bud. Now."

"This morning, I was physically assaulted by ASA member Nathan LaPalma, who hit me in the face after I made a well-meaning comment about his coaching style in relation to my former student, causing me to bite my tongue and bleed from the mouth. After calling several officials, I have been told that this is somehow not grounds for immediate dismissal due to LaPalma's contract, which is utterly ludicrous. I have been told that I must first attempt to resolve the issue with LaPalma face to face before I can hope to escalate the issue. Unbelievable."
