WHAT NOW? NO LEADS. NO NOTHING

Ines said something once when she was talking trash about Cel...

she keeps a hidden key
between her place + studio!

paranoidddd much?

Ines said key is at the place where Celestine "visits her spiritual protector." WHERE??? Thought maybe the grave of Marie Laveau, but they don't just let you walk in there for no reason. She snuck in the night of the murder, but almost impossible to get into cemetery alone during the day. HAS to be somewhere else that's in between her home and studio. But where?
